

Egypt is the 3rd largest supplier of cotton yarn to the EU region

The EU imports of cotton yarn has reached more than 911 Million Euro in 2016, with a minor decline of -1% compared to 2015, and +1% growth in volume that exceeded 281K Tons. Turkey, India, and Egypt dominate 73% of the EU import in value and 76% in volume.

Comparison of the main suppliers of cotton yarn to the EU region in the period 2008 to 2016

Portugal and Italy are the largest importers of cotton yarn in the EU region representing 50% of the 281K Tons EU region imported cotton yarn. Portugal is the EU largest importer of cotton yarn in the EU region with a growth of +94% in the period 2011 to 2016.

Comparison of the main importers of cotton yarn in the EU region in the period 2009 to 2016

